An Adventure for Character Levels 7-9

Remember the good old days, when adventures were underground, NPCs were there to be killed, and the finale of every dungeon was the dragon on the 20th level? Those days are back. Dungeon Crawl Classics don't waste your time with long-winded speeches, weird campaign settings, or NPCs who aren't meant to be killed. Each adventure is 100% good, solid dungeon crawl, with the monsters you know, the traps you fear, and the secret doors you know are there somewhere.

A mysterious magic book has transported the heroes to the Forest of Lanterns and turned them into small children! In order to escape from this magical demiplane, they must find the Warty Witch who lives in a cottage made of candy at the heart of the forest. Over the course of their adventures they must battle a "chocolate" pudding, carnivorous garden plants, and a host of miniature trolls!

Great, twisted, fun

By Really?

I ran this adventure for a game group I had in Winter Park, Florida.

It was a very challenging module for them but they had a blast. The characters were great fun and especially "Tom, the Tome of Tales", who ironically made reappearances throughout my campaign after the PCs escaped from him in the first place. Lots of shenanigans, laughs, and serious fights broke out throughout the entire adventure. Give it a chance, you won't be disappointed.
