Good Advice

By Aspiring Professional

Ignore your doubts, and score a new idea! I cannot say whether or not this book has or has not help me, because I am still not in a relationship, but I must say that the book get you thinking about your past and it helps you to understand why bad things happened and to move on from the past and look forward to a new start.

Just not that good

By ThisDude

This book is mostly a copy of common advice given in pickup books that are far better. If you've read some of the really poplar ones: Mystery Method, Bang, Models..... This book will be a waste.

I knocked down one star for having zero originality, and being overly long. The book should have been under a hundred pages.

Another star is knocked down for the fact that the title is misleading. Your not using some new method of ignoring tactics. The author basically tells you to ignore your fear, ignore your neediness, ignore her $#!t tests, etc... You can tactfully ignore her tests, but telling you to ignore your emotions is for the most part not possible. Read Models by Mark Manson if you want to actually deal with why you feel the way you do.

And finally another star for simply being a bad book and wasting my time&money. I threw the book away. There really are far better. Those being MM, Bang(kinda), Models..... Hell, the Dicarlo Escalation ladder is better than this.

Rob's book is the nuts

By Mr. Jack Hammond

Robby the author of this book is a legend! I enjoyed reading every page. I bought this on iPhone and got to say it made me feel a bit better after a break up already. This book as I read in previous review is about learning your self it's a 5 star from me and it has links and email advice. I was bit worried about emailing and rob lays the law down but when u act weak u need to be strong in the mind body and soul to ever stop drowning in your sorrows and his email advice really helps. End of the day men an woman are different but that's the reason life and relationships are so fun even when they go sour. My advice to people would be chill and be happy with yourself because we all had ups and downs. Try stay up forget the down. Cheers Jack.
