By Eliza Martin

Great information for travelers heading to the Netherlands on a budget, and for those who want to spend a bit more. Lonely Planet still remains my go-to travel guide series.

Pretty good guide book

By Amazon Customer

Pretty good guide book. I bought this book in the airport before I went to visit family in the Netherlands. I have visited the Netherlands three times before and thought for my fourth trip that I should finally get a guide book to find some "hidden" places. I read this book mostly on the train and it was interesting and informative. Some of the destinations were overhyped(Hoge Veluwe national park), but the rest of the book was accurate and interesting. In the end, leave some of the destinations to your own discretion and do some research outside of the book for places you'd like to go.

The biggest benefit this book provided me was directions to destinations. I usually didn't have internet, so having this book on hand was a lifesaver.
