Lucian

I own her. I've taken everything in her life and made it mine.

I'm not a nice man, no matter how much my woman wants to believe I am. Ashley can have her fantasy as long as it keeps her where she belongs. With me. I've finally got the family I've always wanted, the wife and son I've dreamt of, but when her father takes what is mine I will stop at nothing to get her back and make him regret the day he made that fateful decision.

I have her back, there was never any doubt that I would get her, she belongs to me. Now I just have to find the animal who dared to lay hands on what is mine and ensure that he fully understands exactly what I am capable of.

I protect my family, as a man should, and I will not countenance anyone thinking they can take what I protect. Especially not when my wife is filled with our first child. I just never counted on my past coming back to destroy the peace I've finally found.

Now it's up to Ash to decide whether this situation becomes a war or a learning curve. I'll never let her go but that doesn't mean she'll want to stay.

Note:

Short story. Cliffhanger ending. Part 2 of 3. (Very) Adult content.

Good book well written off to buy the conclusion

By AnnaC

Good book well written off to buy the conclusion. Just enough trials in the relationship to make it interesting. Although it does seem the male is doing all the taking and the female lead all the giving.

Yup...another cliffy

By The Book Chick

This one dragged a bit longer than the first part even though it was fairly short. I'm curious to see how the story ends so off two buy book 3.

Wow

By Cierra McCauley

This was another great read the ending left me wanting more. These two have so much going for them if everyone can just be truthful
