Nice story

By AZNative

I enjoyed the story but it didn't hook me for an exciting ride. It just sort of allowed me to walk through it at a leisurely pace. Good but not great in my opinion.

Wanted to like it but it was awful

By Dee

I just hate it when a book does not live up to the blurb. I like the idea of a h who wasn't the usual stick thin heroine.

I don't know where you can really go when the opening scenes are all about a hot sexual encounter for the H with some famous stick thin actress and his wife witnesses it.

Apparently the H is just so virile that he can't go without and it's inferred that this is not the first. No apology at anytime through the book about this. In fact he was willing and ready to go straight from the boney actress to the "softer" wife within minutes. Just gross!

There was no sparks between the H and h and you have got to wonder what they see in each other except the so called amazing chemistry. Though the encounter with the actress at the start of the book seemed to have more of this so called "chemistry".

H can't understand why h believed anything bad about him and didn't trust him...ummmm cause you can't keep it in your pants for two minutes after your wife left maybe. And despite the baby I don't understand why the h would just go back to him after witnessing him almost about to take the actress to bed.

The motivations and "love" just didn't make sense or ring true.

Really just a big big disappointment.
