Could've been 5 stars if the card stock was thicker

By Robin M

I'm giving this deck four stars instead of five solely because of the card stock. As other reviewers have said, these cards are flimsy. And they're slick. Not only are they difficult to shuffle, they will also slide around even on a flat tabletop. Aside from that, I really like this set! The book is well written and fascinating; the case that the book and cards come in is reasonably sturdy and cleverly designed; and the artwork on the cards is charming. I'm also pleased with how easy and fun it is to do a reading with them - and wow, are they accurate! With one reading, I thought the information had to be a mistake, until the event happened out of the blue a few days later; fortunately, I wasn't caught off-guard, thanks to that reading. Even if you don't have much faith in oracles, the images are great for sparking topics for conversations. If you are willing to handle the cards carefully, then I recommend this set. :)

Fun, Accurate & Insightful Tool

By Laura De Giorgio

I use a lot of different tools for divination and each has its own strengths and angles in terms of what kind of insights it offers, but I have found these cards to be very easy to use, fun, accurate and insightful.

While I love I Ching and Tarot - and have been using them for years, together with prophetic dreaming, shamanic journeying and lot of other methods for accessing one's inner wisdom - these cards can be effectively used even by people who have never used any divination tools before.

Those who have extensive background with other tools may find these cards to add a variety and a new slant - with a touch of Eastern European wisdom and a few humorous metaphors / proverbs as in "love is not a potato, you can't just throw it out the window!".
