Lovely and refreshing! To give your children the gift of these animal poems--whimsical, lyric, silly, or profound -- is to give them a little piece of magic they will carry for a lifetime." --Sharifa Oppenheimer, author of Heaven on Earth: A Handbook for Parents of Young Children

"An entire zoo of real and fantastical animals brought together under a single roof -- a rich selection of poems for all ages, all of them resonant with meaning. No teacher should be without this invaluable collection." --Douglas Gerwin, Ph.D., Executive Director of the Research Institute for Waldorf Education

"A mixture of well-known treasures and little-known jewels for every temperament and taste. With poems ranging from the witty to the serious, from the playful to the profound, this compendium will serve generations to come." --Roberto Trostli, author of Physics Is Fun! and Rhythms of Learning

"From farms to forests, traditional to modern, this wonderful collection is a tremendous resource for inspiring ring times, finger games, puppetry, and storytelling." --Janni Nicol, author of Creative Play for Your Toddler

"What a superb collection of animal poetry! I truly wish I'd had this humongous book when I was teaching children -- it would have shortened the endless hours I spent searching for animal poems. David Kennedy has created a wonderful anthology, setting out and organizing this broad collection for ease of access and use. This book is destined to be a must-have for schools and teachers -- it has all the old favorites and many, many unfamiliar ones as well. My hat goes off to him!" --Reg Down, eurythmist and author of The Tales of Tiptoes Lightly

An ambitious work full of delight

By Mary

My daughter delighted in animal stories as a youngster. The imagery in this incredible selection of poems awakens the imagination and provides a wonderful way to learn about the animal kingdom. I enjoyed reading "old favorites" and was fascinated by the variety of perspectives and moods of many works that are new to me. I will give it to parents as well as to teachers. Even to my now-grown daughter!

Wonderful, beautiful, inspirational and authentic.

By Savannah

Teaches children values and respect. A wonderful variation and selection of poetry and stories which could be perfect for bedtime when one is too tired to read a whole book. This would be ideal leaving the imagination open for thought and creativity combined with subtle messages while moulding the personality of the listener and reader in a positive way. Vocabulary superb! With an animal alphabet that introduces many unusual creatures. This is an all in one book. From stories to poetry to English to increased IQ. to musical verses, this book has it all. Highly recommended for all ages!

This is an incredible resource!!

By joen mariposa

What a great collection! This would be a invaluable addition for any teacher's collection. Parents too, will find many an evening read for their children. I practically read this from cover to cover the first time I sat down with it. I will be using this in my teaching this year and many years to come. Second grade Waldorf teachers will find here the largest collection in the world of Aesop Fables put into verse. This is an incredible resource!!!
